Pre-university training of foreign nationals at BarSU

BarSU faculty of pre-university training of foreign nationals

Training of foreign citizens at the faculty began in 2007. Classes are given by qualified teachers experienced in teaching foreigners.

At present the faculty offers 2 forms of education:

- training for entry to higher educational establishments of the Republic of Belarus,
- a course in the Russian language at the elementary, basic and advanced levels lasting from 1 to 6 months.

Over 6 years, the faculty has prepared over 80 students for entry to the universities of the Republic of Belarus, and a Russian language course has been completed by more than 400 nationals from Turkey, China, Sri-Lanka, Syria, Nigeria and Cameroon.

University provides a transfer from Minsk Airport to Baranovichi .

Training for entry to higher educational establishments of the Republic of Belarus

Foreign nationals, with an education which conforms to that provided by a secondary general school of the Republic of Belarus, are invited for a comprehensive and targeted training for entry to a university and other higher educational establishments of Belarus.

Term of study – October 13th – July 5th.

Learners study subjects included into entrance examinations in the following profiles:

- Economic,
- Technical and technological,
- Foreign language (English),
- Linguistics.

Faculty graduates get certificates authorizing them to apply for entry to higher educational establishments of the Republic of Belarus on the specialties of the corresponding profiles.

The deadline of submitting documents to receive an invitation to study is September 15th.

Documents required to receive an invitation:

- an application form in Russian (the application form is available on the university website),
- a notarized copy of the certificate of education showing subjects studied and grades (marks) obtained,
- a copy of all completed pages of the passport.

The above documents are sent to the mailing address of the University by fax or email.

The list of documents required for admission is given in the invitation to study.

A Russian language course

Foreign citizens are offered instruction in the Russian language program with elementary, basic and advanced levels of study. Duration of study is from 1 to 6 months.

The number of students in a group is up to 12 people.

Graduates of the course receive a certificate indicating the level of Russian language studied.

To receive an invitation to study, it is necessary to apply to a recruiting firm or to send a completed application form and a copy of passport at the university mail address by fax or email.

The application form is available on the university website.
